

Türkiye occupies a unique geographic position. It is situated in Western Asia (Anatolian) (97%) and the Balkans (3%), bordering the Black Sea, between Bulgaria and Georgia. Turkey has an emerging market economy, and it is one of the world's newly industrialized countries. It has the world's 19th-largest nominal GDP. The country is among the world's leading producers of agricultural products; textiles; motor vehicles, transportation equipment; construction materials; consumer electronics and home appliances.

Bilateral relations between Pakistan and Türkiye are brotherly and deep-rooted. The strong bonds of friendship are manifested in common affection between the people of the two countries. Furthermore, Pakistan and Türkiye signed a landmark Strategic Economic Framework (SEF) and preferential trade agreement.
